Tuesday, April 20. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 24.

Vienna, April 11.

WE are in hopes here that the King of Prussia will shortly send a considerable Body of Men to reinforce Count Schlick. The 6000 Hungarian new-rais'd Foot will pass through this City in a few Days, and will be conducted by Lieutenant Collonel Engelson to Count Schlick's Army. The Heer Dalman, who was lately sent to the Turkish Court, has written hither, that the Turks are resolv'd to continue in Peace with His Imperial Majesty.

From the Harlem Courant, dated April 24.

Basil, April 14. The Night between the 10th and 11th a Party of 15 Germans pass'd the Rhine above this City, and march'd into the Upper Alsatia, plunder'd two Houses in the Village of Buschweiler, and in their return fell in with a French Party, of which they morrally wounded one of the Officers, and then dispers'd themselves; 2 or 3 of them are taken and carry'd by the French into Hunningen. This will occasion a great deal of Vexation to us, the French making lond Complaints of this Violation of our Territories, and threatning, unless we take due Satisfaction to do the like. Mean time they have acquainted their Court with it, as well as their Ambassador to the Cantons.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 24.

Liege, April 19. This Morning Monsr. Selys Canon of our Cathedral, one of the Deputies that was lately in the Hague, was seiz'd as he was walking in one of the Publick Places of the City, and carried to the Citadel, There are various Discourses on this Transaction, but the most general Report is, That it was done by Order from the States General, and that several Letters have been intercepted written by him to Brussels and Namur, in which he express'd himself with too much Freedom. At the first News of it, the Chapter met immediately, and sent a Deputation about it to Count Tilly; who return'd Answer that as the Order for Apprehending the said Canon was not directed to him, he can say nothing to it. The said Count Tilly is preparing to go to the Lower Rhine, The Enemy are in Motion in these Parts, and have sent 8 Battallions and 10 Squadrons towards the Rhine. Letters from Namur say our Elector will make the Campaign, he is expected at Huy on the 26th, and they talk there that he will command a Body of Troops on the Mehaigne.

Maestricht, Aril 20. We are inform'd that some French Horse are drawing together about Diest: On the other side, The Forces of the Confederates are moving from divers Places, to rendezvous in the Neighbourhood of this Place; and an Army of them will be form'd near the River Jekker. General Auverquerque is expected here daily. Yesterday several Camp-Waggons with several Pieces of Artillery and Ammunition arriv'd under the Cannon of this City, and some Regiments of Horse and Foot are already come hereabouts, who are canton'd towards Tongeren and Bilsen till the Army be form'd. Our Garrison is getting ready to march out.

Madrid, April 5. The last Letters from Ceuta advise, That two of the Sons of the King of Morocco having rebell'd against him, have possess'd themselves of the Towns of Morocco and Zafi, in which they found great Magazines of all sorts of Ammunition: That they have already thrice defeated the Army of their Father whom they would Dethrone; and that Muley Sidan his eldest Son is drawing together all the Forces he can, to take the Field against his 2 Brothers.

They write from Madrid of the 15th, That on the 21st of last Month, the Governor of Alicant signified to all the English Merchants residing there, that he had receiv'd an Order from Court to enjoyn them all to depart out of that City and its Dependancies within 3 Days, except those among them who are Roman Catholicks; and that several of those Merchants have had Meetings at Ellas a Village within 3 Leagues from Alicant, to consult how to order their Affairs and to leave the Country with Safety.

But of this we expect more certain Advice.

Hull, April 17. On the 14th arriv'd here the Amsterdam Fleet from Holland under Convoy of 2 Dutch Men of War, one of which sail'd immediately after with some East Country Ships to the Westward. We have an Account of our last Fleet, viz. that 5 Ships ran a-shoar, 18 stranded, and 33 safe arriv'd in the Maes, which has occasion'd a great Consternation in this Town, there being a great many of our Towns People lost.
